

The report about the meteorological forecast is given by Serveis Audiovisuals de Meteorologia (SAM). The forecast is realised in the town called Monistrol de Montserrat (150 m). The monastery is located at 725 m. in altitude and it has its own micro-climates.

The meteorological forecasts describe the most probable evolution of the atmosphere's state so they don't have the rank of certainty and an absolute reliability, Central de Reserves de Montserrat SAU will not be responsible for any damages caused by the diffusion of the provided meteorological information.